Your questions answered

What is the qualification?

Upon successful completion of the course you will be awarded "The BSI Diploma in Quality Management", which is equivalent to an NVQ level 3 course.

What does the course aim to do?

You will need to successfully complete the questions and exercises based on the six self-study modules of the course. You will perform exercises involving individual work as well as teamwork with colleagues and your organisation. You will be required to submit your responses to the questions and exercises for assessment by your BSI tutor as you work through the course. You should be able to complete the course in a maximum of nine months, and with a minimum of 90 hours' study. You will be free to allocate your time to the course to suit yourself. You will be allocated to one tutor who will see you through the course. A tutorial support/helpline and e-mail address will be available for queries and help.

What's included in the study kit?

- Cover letter welcoming the delegate
- Standards: ISO 14001:2004, ISO 14004:2010 and BS 8555:2003
- Managing the Environment the 14001 way (BIP book 2069)
- USB stick with all course materials (as per modules)

The BSI certification mark may be used on your stationery, literature and vehicles when you have successfully achieved certification and conform with applicable guidelines. The mark shall never be applied directly on the product or service.

Submission of assignments

Modules should be submitted in line with your agreed study plan. While the dates of submission are not fixed, it is essential that you advise your tutor if you are not going to meet them. Tutor time will have been allocated to review your submissions and this will need to be reallocated without delay.

Where the tutor requires re-submission of the modules, the study plan will need to be amended accordingly.

Feedback

BSI will provide you with feedback from the submitted assignments within two weeks of your agreed submission date.

If for any reason the duration will be longer than two weeks you will be notified accordingly.

Administration and maintenance fees

There is no administration fee associated with the course. The advised duration for course completion is nine months. If after twelve months of receiving the course materials you have not completed the course BSI will charge a maintenance fee of USD 500.

Where you do not wish to complete the course a refund of the course fee or issue of the subsequent modules cannot be made.
